

Warner Retailers meeting

8 AM Wednesday Sept. 26 at Runner Stone Café

Attending: Martha Thoits, Nancy Ladd, Nina Glendinning.

Dec. 8 updates:

United Church: Will host KCPA's GingerBread Man play in the Sanctuary (upper level) and the Prayer Group will have craft and other tables, either in the Fellowship Hall (street level) or in the Parish House next door. They will make a red present / box to display.

Farmer's Market: Suzanne Bohman is organizing vendors for the Town Hall basement for Dec 8. Nina Glendinning's massage station will be there also.

Yankee Cable Network (YCN)'s Chronicle cable show Sean Bohman came by and said he will try to interview someone mid-October to air in early December.

Other: Kay Steen told Nancy that Sandy Bartholomew may open her Studio (former Wingdoodle) for book signing and/ or zentangle workshops.

Questions:

Where are the vendor application forms and PR poster materials that Cheryl was going to look for and update?

Is the advertizing on track?

Does there need to be another meeting soon?

Fall Foliage Festival:

The map and schedule are online and will soon be in print as a supplement to the brochure.

Nina will have a "booth" space in the Farmer's Market area.

Church is doing Breakfast both days, and supper Saturday (% to WFFF) .

Buffalo Plaid is doing music on Friday 5th at Brackett Sheffy's lawn by Town Hall.

Next meeting?

Cheryl / Caroline should call it as needed for ads?
