BITS ETC (a therapeutic riding facility in Hopkinton NH) will be holding its monthly volunteer training from 10-Noon, Saturday, January 18. Yes, we do ride in the winter, and are especially needing volunteer help on Friday mornings, Sunday mornings or evenings, and Thursday mornings. No previous experience with horses necessary. Volunteers can come for an hour, or several. Direct horse care, barn maintenance, and on the job training offered. More information can be found on our website at www.bitsetc.org. A volunteer application can be downloaded under the 'contact us now' button of the landing page, and all are welcome to attend the training to learn a bit about what we do here. Hope to see you on Saturday!!

New Hampshire Telephone Museum Presents A Silent Film Screening with Live Musical Accompaniment. January 19, Sunday, at 2:00 p.m. If you are longing to get out of the house for a fun winter afternoon activity, the New Hampshire Telephone Museum has the perfect solution! Join them at the Warner Town Hall for a screening of the 1925 silent film, "Seven Chances" starring Buster Keaton. Silent films aren't your thing? Then you haven't seen one accompanied by musician, Jeff Rapsis. "The first time I saw Jeff was at a screening of the WWI silent movie, "Wings," says NHTM Executive Director Laura French. "I had never really watched a silent film so I wasn't sure what to expect, but it turned out to be a unique and amazing experience!" Admission to the event is $10 per person or $5 per person if you are a member of the NH Telephone Museum. There will be popcorn and drinks available for a nominal fee and, as an added bonus, Jeff will also accompany the 1920 short comedy, "Number Please!" starring Harold Lloyd. All proceeds benefit the museum. Tickets will be available at the door or you can call the museum at (603) 456-2234 to reserve seats. "I really hope people seize this opportunity; it's so much fun and it's for a good cause!"
